IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF OHIO COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

LOURIE JEFFERSON (f/k/a BROWN) and MONIQUE BROWN,

Plaintiffs,

v.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 13-C- 91

QUICKEN LOANS, INC.,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

NOW COME the Plaintiffs, Lourie Jefferson (formerly Lourie Brown) and Monique Brown, who, for their Complaint against the Defendant, Quicken Loans, Inc., alleges as follows:

1. The Plaintiffs, Lourie Jefferson and Monique Brown, reside in Wheeling, Ohio County, West Virginia.

2. The Defendant, Quicken Loans, Inc. ("Quicken") is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Michigan with its principal place of business located in Livonia, Michigan. Its agent for service of process is CT Corporation System, 707 Virginia Street E, Charleston, West Virginia 25301. At all relevant times, Quicken was actively engaged in the business of soliciting, writing and administering prime and sub-prime loans to West Virginia residents. As it did here, Quicken Loans also regularly engages in the servicing and collecting of certain loans that it is unable to sell on the secondary market for one reason or another.

3. Quicken is vicariously liable under the doctrines of agency and joint venture for the acts and omissions of all of its employees, vendors and other agents involved in the servicing and collection of the Plaintiffs' loan. Upon information and belief, Quicken and its vendors combined their money, time, and experience to enforce the subject loan. Each act undertaken above was in furtherance of and within the scope of this joint effort. Each benefited or intended to benefit from the joint acts.

4. Moreover, Quicken has the right to control and exercises control over its employees and vendors involved in the servicing and collection of the Plaintiffs' loan; has the power to select its employees and vendors; has the power to dismiss its employees and vendors; and compensates its employees and vendors for their work on this loan.

5. On or about July 7, 2006, the plaintiff, Lourie Jefferson, executed a promissory note in the principal sum of $144,800 in favor of Quicken (hereinafter, the "subject loan"). The note was secured by a deed of trust encumbering the property owned by Plaintiffs and required the signature of both Lourie Jefferson and Monique Brown.

6. Because Quicken would not consider Ms. Jefferson's pleas for a loan workout or modification and in order to stave off foreclosure, Plaintiffs on or about January 23, 2008 filed a complaint against the Defendant Quicken, among others, in the Circuit Court of Ohio County, West Virginia, alleging that their loan was procured through fraudulent and predatory lending practices. The case was captioned Brown v. Quicken Loans Inc., et al., Ohio County Civil Action No. 08-C-36, Recht.

7. Even prior to filing their predatory lending complaint, on or about August 30, 2007, Quicken was notified in writing that Bordas and Bordas represented Lourie Jefferson and Monique Brown with respect to the subject loan transaction. Therein, Plaintiffs' counsel requested all future correspondence be directed to his attention.

8. West Virginia Code § 46A-2-128(d) expressly prohibits “any communication<sup>1</sup> with a consumer whenever it appears that the consumer is represented by an attorney and the attorney's name and address are known, or could be easily ascertained.”<sup>2</sup>

9. Also on January 23, 2008, Quicken by and through its representative and agent went to the home of Lourie Jefferson and Monique Brown and left a note in the door asking them to personally contact Quicken.

10. On January 24, 2008, Attorney Causey wrote to Quicken's counsel, again requesting that Quicken cease all direct contact with the Plaintiffs.

11. In response, Quicken's counsel on January 31, 2008 assured Attorney Causey that further contact with Mrs. Jefferson or Ms. Brown would be coordinated through his office.

12. From November of 2009 to June 2010, Quicken on more than one occasion directly communicated with Lourie Jefferson regarding its purported belief that Ms. Jefferson's homeowners' insurance policy had lapsed when it had not.

13. By February 2010, the Circuit Court following a trial had declared the subject loan void, as well as unenforceable, and ordered the deed of trust released by way of its February 25, 2010 Order.

14. In the Circuit Court's Order dated February 25, 2010 at pages 18, 20, 22 and 24, it enjoined Quicken “from attempting to collect any future payments under the loan.”

15. Nevertheless, in September 2010 soon after a subsequent hearing regarding punitive damages concluded, Quicken reappeared at the Jefferson/Brown home. This time Quicken left a note stating it was “URGENT” that the Plaintiffs contact Quicken and left a toll free number with a direct extension for Plaintiffs to call.

<sup>2</sup> The statute creates exceptions if “the attorney fails to answer correspondence, return phone calls or discuss the obligation in question or [if] the attorney consents to direct communication.” Neither exception is applicable here.

16. Again, shortly after filing its notice of appeal on July 25, 2011, Quicken left another note for Lourie Jefferson on or in her front door. The note states: “PLEASE CONTACT US” and “ASSISTANCE MAY BE AVAILABLE TO YOU.” This note also provides a toll free number for Quicken Loans.

17. Quicken followed up with yet another insurance related letter to Ms. Jefferson dated September 7, 2011.

18. On September 23, 2011, Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Strike the Appeal, For Sanctions and Injunctive Relief with the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals.

19. Despite Plaintiffs’ motion, Ms. Jefferson received another letter from Quicken Loans dated September 28, 2011. In the letter, Quicken threatens to obtain very expensive (but limited) property insurance at Ms. Jefferson’s expense.

20. Quicken filed three separate Affidavits in response to Plaintiffs’ sanction motion in which it blamed either employee error or automated processes for these contacts.

21. In its last Affidavit, Quicken made the following assurance to the Court that it would finally cease contacting the Plaintiffs.

8. In addition to my discontinuation of the automated letter process on September 30, 2011, Quicken Loans has taken further steps since that date to seek to ensure that Ms. Jefferson will not be contacted, by making certain technological enhancements that should prevent the discontinuation of the automated letter process from being intentionally or unintentionally overridden.

22. On February 9, 2012, the Supreme Court of Appeals denied Plaintiff’s Motion to Strike the Appeal “without prejudice to sanctions and/or other relief.”

23. Not backing down, Quicken has sent Ms. Jefferson additional letters, some of which were plainly an attempt to collect a debt. Examples include: a letter dated March 26, 2012 titled “LOAN PAYMENT INCREASE” that not only threatens an increased monthly payment but threatens additional charges to Plaintiffs' loan account and a letter dated January 10, 2013 that describes Ms. Jefferson's purported payment obligation and loan due date.

COUNT I
Violations of the Consumer Credit Protection Act

24. The foregoing paragraphs are realleged as if set forth fully herein.

25. The Defendant, Quicken, is a debt collector as defined by W.Va. Code § 46A-2-122 and, thus, is subject to the provisions of W.Va. Code § 46A-2-122 et seq. regulating debt collection practices.

26. By contacting the Plaintiffs in an attempt to collect the underlying debt or to obtain information concerning the Plaintiffs through fraudulent, deceptive or misleading representations or means, Quicken, violated W.Va. § 46A-2-127, including subsections (d) & (g), on multiple occasions.

27. Quicken made one or more false representation or implication of the character, extent or amount of its claim against the Plaintiffs, or of its status in legal proceedings and did so in spite of, among other court rulings, an injunction prohibiting the enforcement and collection of the loan and a judgment holding the note and deed of trust unenforceable as a matter of law.

28. Quicken made one or more false representation that the purported loan obligation of the Plaintiffs may be increased by the addition of fees or charges for forced-placed insurance when in fact such fees or charges could not legally be added to the loan obligation given the Court's various rulings invalidating the underlying debt.

29. By directly contacting the Plaintiffs regarding the collection of the underlying debt despite its knowledge that the Plaintiffs were represented by an attorney whose identity and contact information were known by Quicken, the Defendant, Quicken, violated W.Va. Code § 46A-2-128(e) on multiple occasions.

30. By placing the September 2010 and July 25, 2011 notices in or on Plaintiffs' front door where they could ordinarily be seen by other persons and including the language "URGENT" and "ASSISTANCE MAY BE AVAILABLE TO YOU," Quicken violated W.Va. Code § 46A-2-126(d).

31. The Plaintiffs are entitled to actual damages, including annoyance, aggravation, inconvenience, anxiety, stress and embarrassment. Plaintiffs are further entitled to a civil penalty for each violation of the Consumer Credit Protection Act including each prohibited debt collection contact or practice, pursuant to W.Va. Code § 46A-5-101(1) and 106.

32. The Plaintiffs are further entitled to reasonable attorney fees and costs pursuant to W.Va. Code § 46A-5-104.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment against the Defendant for all damages and penalties alleged herein, together with pre and post judgment interest, attorney fees, and any other legal or equitable relief the Court deems just and proper.

RE: NOTICE OF HAZARD/FIRE/REAL PROPERTY INSURANCE REQUIREMENT AND POSSIBLE FORCE PLACEMENT

Dear LOURIE A BROWN,

Our records indicate that we have not received an insurance policy with Hazard/Fire/Real Property coverage for the period of 11/09/2009 to 11/09/2010 covering the above captioned mortgaged property. You are required to maintain continuous Hazard/Fire/Real Property insurance coverage for the mortgaged property during the entire term of your loan. We request that you promptly resolve this issue to avoid any further action by Quicken Loans. You are also required to have Wind Coverage. If Wind Coverage is excluded from your current Hazard/Fire/Real Property policy you will need to provide evidence of a separate Wind Policy.

Please have your agent provide a copy of your Hazard/Fire/Real Property insurance policy or reinstatement reflecting the loan number and property address shown above. In addition, please list the correct mortgagee clause, effective dates and coverage amounts. The mortgagee clause on your policy must read as follows:

Quicken Loans, Inc. Its Successors and/or Assigns
PO Box 391376
Solon, OH 44139-8376

Please forward a copy of this letter to your Insurance agent requesting they promptly comply with our requirements on your behalf and fax the necessary documentation to us at 440-505-6013 or mail to the address shown above. If you believe the policy has already been sent, please verify the accuracy of the information in the policy such as loan number, collateral address, insured name and mortgagee clause. Errors in critical information may result in the policy not being updated to your records.

If we do not receive acceptable evidence of insurance as requested above within 30 days, we may optionally force place this coverage at your expense. Such replacement insurance will only provide coverage for physical damage to the structure and does not include loss due to flood or earthquake nor supplemental coverage, such as theft, liability or contents. Any insurance purchased would be to protect our interest in the property only. You are responsible for repaying your loan in the event a loss is incurred during a period with no insurance. Any insurance proceeds we receive from a policy we purchase on your behalf will be applied in accordance with regulatory requirements and the provisions of your mortgage loan. The premium for a 12-month policy would be $1,112.00 for an insurance coverage amount of $144,377.00. To avoid this cost at your expense, please mail your evidence of current insurance to us immediately.

Thank you for allowing Quicken Loans to serve your mortgage needs. We look forward to hearing from you. Please call us at 866-329-5592 if you have any questions regarding this letter. We are here to answer your questions Monday through Friday, 8:30 am to 7:00 pm EST.

Sincerely,

RE: NOTICE OF HAZARD/FIRE/REAL PROPERTY INSURANCE REQUIREMENT

Dear LOURIE A BROWN,

Thank you for being a Quicken Loans client. Our records show that your Hazard/Fire/Real Property insurance policy expired on 09/13/2011 for the property address shown above. As a term of your mortgage loan, you agreed to and are responsible to provide proof of Hazard/Fire/Real Property coverage to Quicken Loans throughout the life of your loan.

If you are unable to provide proper evidence of Hazard/Fire/Real Property insurance, Quicken Loans has the option of obtaining insurance coverage at your expense. Please understand that the coverage we obtain is usually much more expensive than coverage you could obtain on your own and you will be responsible to repay us for that coverage. Insurance that we purchase on your behalf will only cover physical damage to the home; personal property, loss due to theft and liability protection will not be covered.

Please have your agent provide a copy of your Hazard/Fire/Real Property insurance policy or reinstatement reflecting the loan number and property address shown above. The documentation may be faxed to 440-505-6013. The mortgagee clause on your policy should read as follows:

Quicken Loans Inc. Its Successors and/or Assigns
PO Box 391376
Solon, OH 44139-8376
